

Elvira Covarrubias-Martínez

Elvira Covarrubias-Martinez (she/her/ella) is honored to join the Latino Leadership Council as a new board member and excited to serve and uplift our Latino community. Elvira brings a deep passion for equity, inclusion, and student advocacy, shaped by her experience as a first-generation Latina college graduate. She currently serves as the Rising Scholars Supervisor at Sierra College, where she has spent nearly a decade working to support historically excluded student populations through inclusive outreach strategies and trauma-informed practices. Elvira holds a B.S. in Human Development from UC Davis, an M.A. in Education with a focus on Counseling from San Diego State University, and a graduate certificate in Trauma-Informed and Restorative Justice Care. Elvira is especially passionate about creating compassionate, culturally responsive spaces for justice-impacted students and families. Outside work, she enjoys sewing, paddleboarding, and spending meaningful time with her family.

“I’m excited to bring my heart, experience, and dedication to this role and look forward to working alongside [the LLC] to support and celebrate our Latino community.”
