

José María Díaz

José María Díaz (LCSW) Licensed Clinical Social Worker, is a passionate advocate for upward social mobility and equitable access to services for underrepresented communities. He believes deeply in giving back and connecting individuals to the support they need. José found a meaningful professional and personal connection years ago through the Latino Leadership Council, where he both utilized services and helped link families to essential resources.

José earned his Bachelor's degree in Social Work in 2006 and his Master's in Social Work in 2009, both from California State University, Sacramento. He began his clinical career providing therapy to children and families in the Stockton and Sacramento areas, specializing in Parent-Child Interaction Therapy (PCIT) and other therapeutic modalities—delivered in Spanish to better serve the Latino community.

Throughout his career, José has remained committed to community involvement. He has volunteered with the Adult Literacy Program in Stockton, CA, and supported the Sheriff's Community Impact Program, bridging relationships between youth and law enforcement. In every role, he has championed access to culturally responsive mental health services.

“No matter what happens, no matter how far you seem to be away from where you want to be, never stop believing that you will somehow make it.” Les Brown
